Humanity First USA Confirms No Affiliation with Similarly Named Organization and its Former CEO

May 20th, 2025

Chantilly, VA — Humanity First USA (HFUSA), a 501(c) disaster relief and humanitarian organization dedicated to serving humanity and safeguarding human life and dignity, clearly and unequivocally states/claims that Humanity First USA has no affiliation—past or present—with Human First, Inc., its leadership, employees, operations, or any related legal matters they are going through currently or in the past.

“Humanity First USA is a registered nonprofit with a long-standing record of transparency, accountability, and service,” said Munum Naeem, Board Chairman and Executive Director, Humanity First USA. “Since our founding, we have operated with the highest ethical standards, delivering humanitarian relief and development programs across the United States and globally.”

Humanity First USA is issuing this statement to address and correct recent misinformation appearing in online search engine results and AI-generated content, which mistakenly associates our organization with a financial scandal involving a wholly separate and completely unrelated entity, Human First, Inc. (also known as Human First) and its former CEO.

Media platforms, search engines, and AI-generated content providers should correct any content that inaccurately associates Humanity First USA with this unrelated matter. Humanity First USA is immediately addressing this concern with appropriate search engines and AI platforms.
